CALGARY OFFICE

Suite 300, 602 12th Avenue SW P: 403-266-1201
Calgary, AB T2R 1J3

Stephanie received her JD from the University of Calgary (2015) prior to joining Maurice Law as an articling student in May 2016. After her Bar Call to the Law Society of Alberta (2017), Stephanie transitioned to her current role as Counsel, where she focuses exclusively on historical components of Specific Claims.

Stephanie holds a PhD in History (2007) from the University of Calgary. There, she studied illegal war, most notably the "unrestricted" submarine warfare campaigns of the Second World War, which has also been the focus of her publications. Stephanie undertook one semester of comparative Aboriginal Law on exchange at Waikato University in Hamilton, New Zealand, taking courses in Māori Land Law and International Indigenous Law. Stephanie was also a member of Waikato University's mooting team at the Red Cross International Humanitarian Law Moot in Wellington, NZ, in November 2014.
